Alpena Alcona Area Credit Union Donates to Cheboygan DECA

Cheboygan, MI — Alpena Alcona Area Credit Union (AAACU) donated $200 to the Cheboygan High School DECA program. DECA stands for Distributive Education Clubs of America and is a career and technical student organization that strives to provide students with skills and opportunities in the areas of business, marketing, and entrepreneurship.

The funds will support the Cheboygan DECA organization as the students head to the State Career Development Conference hosted by DECA in Detroit from March 13, 2025 through March 15, 2025. The conference will allow DECA members to gain critical knowledge to improve their leadership and professional skills as they compete against other Michigan DECA clubs.

AAACU is proud to support local student organizations that empower students to expand their skillset and pursue new opportunities.
